President's Updates - Rene Schmidt

- Recap STEM day - the event was a big success, be sure to go to Science Day if you did not get a chance to attend STEM day.
- Eanes Cares: the program is avenue for families in need in our community. Looking for a chair, which would consist of a person organizing putting out a caring bridge for volunteers for needs of families. Dana Cotter and April Smith volunteered to chair this committee. Lesley offered to help with website needs.
- Volunteer Spot: Trina talked about the premiere subscription of Volunteer Spot. It creates one general area for everything. She invited everyone to check out Mrs. Watts' teacher page for an example. Lesley offered she and Debbie Smith to help parents who may need help navigating the website. Trina expressed hopes to use it instead of sign up sheets at Back to School night. Volunteer Spot gave us a code to use this service through the rest of the this school year.
- Desserts for December: the event will be on December 18. Trina will create a Volunteer Spot to sign up and a car line pick up. Nothing Bundt Cakes will also give a discount and delivery if you do not want to bake.

Principal Update - Jodie Villemaire

Thank you for breakfast, teachers really appreciate it. Thank you to volunteers for helping with STEM day. Reach out to Kelly VanMeter if your child enjoyed it. Late Start day is this Thursday. It is a time for teachers to work with their Professional Learning Committee. Book Fair was a big success; the school will use Scholastic for the Spring Book Fair. Live Oak was wonderful for the 5th graders. Trina asked how the Fall Party treats worked out. Jodie said that everything went well and there were not any issues.

IEC Update - Stephanie Dwyer

A meeting of the IEC was held on November 4, 2014. The IEC board considered $4,837.11 in requests and approved $2,408.95. The complete November IEC report has been posted to the EEPTO website.
